

Principal's P&F Report 24 August 2009

Staff News

Long Service Leave replacements for Term Four have been organised:

- Teresa Bouwhuis for Bec Lane in Pre-Primary
- Annie Gerhardy for Kelly Huston for PE

The appointment process for the substantive Assistant Principal 2010 position is well underway and an announcement will be made to the school community at the end of term.

Jonnda and Vanessa will be attending the annual CAPA Conference 3-4 September.

APPA National Conference

I will be attending the 2009 Australian Primary Principals' National Conference, Waves of Hope and Oceans of Possibilities, in Queensland from Monday 14 September to Friday 18 September (Week Nine). Jonnda and Vanessa will be in charge of the school for this time.

Reading Books

The teachers have finished selecting their reading books and the first orders have been sent off!! There is much excited anticipation awaiting their arrival!!

Building the Education Revolution (BER)

Completed since last meeting:

- Shade sails (Except one waiting for tree lopper!!)
- Painting

Remaining projects have been scheduled.

School Focus

Thank you to all parents for supporting the school in its endeavour to encourage children to take pride in their school and care for others:

- There has been a noticeable improvement in the overall standard of school uniform and dress
- Students are following morning procedure and remaining calmer before school begins
- The number of 'latecomers' is lessening
- Parents are ensuring sick children are better before they return to school
